

Among the things to do before leaving Sinai for the Promised Land were taking a census and organizing the camp around the tabernacle.

Chapter 1

1. How long had it been since the Israelites left Egypt?
2. What did the LORD tell Moses to do?
3. Who were to be counted and why?
4. What was the total?
5. What had the LORD told Moses about this earlier (Ex 30:11-16)?
6. Who were not listed among Israel and why?

Chapter 2

7. What determined where each family camped?
8. What was in the middle of the camp?
9. Besides where each tribe would camp, what instructions were given about when they marched?

Chapter 3:14-39

10. Who were counted and what was the total?
11. Who were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari?
12. Besides counting them, what instructions were given about camping and moving to the families of Gershon, Kohath, and Merari?